Terms and Conditions

Last updated: November 2, 2026

These Terms apply to ciarathevibe.com, the website of Ciara.the.Vibe, based in Santa Barbara, California.

1. Website Content

This website provides information about our interview-led storytelling, video production, editing, and consulting services, along with portfolio examples and educational resources.

We aim to keep information accurate and current, but content, availability, and service descriptions may change. Website content is general information, not a guarantee of suitability for a particular project.

2. Client Services

Submitting an inquiry or booking a discovery call does not create a paid client engagement.

Before work begins, we will agree in writing on the project’s scope, fees, payment schedule, deliverables, revisions, timeline, and applicable usage rights. That agreement governs the project and takes precedence over these website Terms if they conflict.

3. Intellectual Property

Original website text, graphics, videos, and downloadable resources belong to Ciara.the.Vibe or their respective owners. Portfolio materials may include work created for clients or with collaborators. Displaying that work does not grant permission to reuse it.

You may link to our public pages. Please obtain permission before copying, republishing, selling, or distributing our original materials, except where applicable law permits otherwise.

4. Free Resources

Unless a resource states otherwise, you may use our free resources for your own learning and internal business planning, including creating your own content from the exercises.

You may not resell or redistribute the resources themselves, remove attribution, or present them as your own. Share the original signup or download page instead.

You retain ownership of original material you create using our prompts and exercises.

5. Results and Examples

Educational resources and services are intended to support clearer communication and content creation. We do not guarantee particular audience growth, views, engagement, sales, sponsorships, or other business results.

Portfolio examples illustrate past work and do not promise identical outcomes for future projects.

6. Acceptable Use and Submissions

Please do not use this website to send unlawful material, impersonate another person, distribute malicious software, or interfere with the website’s operation.

Only submit materials you have permission to share. Sending an inquiry or project idea does not transfer ownership to us or grant permission for public use. Please arrange an appropriate sharing method before sending confidential project materials.

7. External Links

This website may link to third-party websites, platforms, or portfolio destinations. We do not control their content, availability, or practices. Their own terms and privacy policies apply.

8. Updates and Applicable Rights

We may update these Terms by posting a revised version with a new date. Changes apply prospectively and do not amend existing client agreements.

Nothing in these Terms excludes rights or responsibilities that cannot lawfully be excluded. These Terms are governed by California law, subject to any mandatory protections that apply to you.
